

REPLAT PROCEDURES
BLANCO COUNTY, TEXAS

SUBDIVISION REGULATIONS

REVISION TO PLAT

The Owner of an existing lot or lots in a platted recorded subdivision may apply for revision of the subdivision plat. Upon receipt of a written application for the revision, the Commissioners Court will provide for notice of the requested revision as set out in Section 232.009 of the Texas Local Government Code. The application (Appendix L) shall include a revised plat or part of a plat that indicates changes made to the original plat.

After all required notices have been made, the Commissioners Court may adopt an Order to permit the revision of the subdivision plat if upon finding that:

1. the revision will not interfere with the rights of any other subdivision owner, or
2. each owner whose rights have been interfered with has agreed to the revision.

Upon approval by the Commissioners Court, the revised plat shall be filed with the County Clerk in the Blanco County Map and Plat Records.

Application fee	=	$300.00
Publication of notice (newspaper)	=	Actual cost + $75
Publication of notice (Mailing)	=	Actual cost + 175
Filings fees @ County Clerk	=	Varies

REQUIRED INFORMATION

- 1) A survey of the property which shows the current configuration which is on file in the County Clerk's office and also the proposed configuration to be considered.
- 2) Completed Revision to Plat application.
- 3) Completed Lienholder's Acknowledgement application (if applicable)
- 4) Tax certificate from the Blanco County Appraisal District showing that taxes are paid.
- 5) Recorded release of easement(s)

PROCESS

The Required Information listed above shall be submitted to the office of the County Judge. The Judge's office will perform the required notifications as required under Section 232.009 of the Texas Local Government Code. This process normally takes approximately 4-6 weeks. After proper notifications have been made, the request for plat revision will be placed on the Commissioners Court agenda for approval. Once approval has been granted, the revised plat must be filed with the office of the County Clerk.

NOTICE:

In compliance with the Blanco County Subdivision Regulations requiring notice as set out in Texas Local Government Code §232.009, the County shall publish notice of this intent to revise a subdivision plat in a newspaper of general circulation in the County at least three (3) times. If all or part of the subdivided tract has been sold to nondeveloper owners, the County shall give written notice to each of those owners by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. If this proposed revision to the subdivision plat does not affect a public interest as described in Local Government Code §232.009(c-1)(1), the County shall be required to provide written notice of the application to the owners of only the lots that are within 200 feet of the proposed plat revision. The County is not required to give notice by mail if the plat revision only combines lots. The County will impose a fee to the applicant for the cost of processing the application including the publishing of newspaper and mail notices. This processing fee will be separate from the filing fee and shall be paid prior to the filing of the plat revision.

By affixing my signature below, I certify that I am the owner of the described property and I hereby request to revise the plat of the described property. I further certify that any and all lienholders have acknowledged this revision as per the attached Lienholder's Acknowledgement. I agree to pay any and all processing fees as described in the notice on page one of the application.

By initialing this box  I certify that I am requesting this revision to only combine existing lots without interfering with the rights of any other property owner.
